

English Ministry Pastor

Position: Full-time English Pastor at Calvary Chapel Chinese Fellowship

Church and Job Summary:

Calvary Chapel Chinese Fellowship (CCCF) is seeking a full-time English Ministry Pastor to lead and shepherd the English congregation which currently has a community of about 65 people consisting of adults, youth and children.

CCCF was founded in 1984 by Michael and Gabriella Wong with Pastor Chuck Smith as the incorporator of the church and is located in Chino, California. The main mission of the church is to minister to believers through worship, fellowship and Bible Study and to reach out to the non-believers through radio program, overseas missions and community service.

Job Description and Responsibilities:

- Work closely with the pastoral team to provide vision and direction for the English Ministry consistent with the church's overall vision
- Provide expository preaching and Biblical teaching
- Oversee and give direction to the young adult, youth and children ministries
- Oversee, organize and coordinate worship and teaching ministries
- Encourage and empower the congregation in fellowship, service and evangelism
- Provide leadership, pastoral care and discipleship training

Qualifications:

- Clear testimony of faith in Jesus Christ and a calling to full-time ministry
- Consistent spiritual and moral character and lifestyle fulfilling the biblical leadership qualifications described in the Bible (e.g. 1 Timothy 3 and Titus 1)
- Strong administration and communication skills and a team player
- Belief consistent with CCCF's doctrinal statement
- Bachelor's or Master's (preferred) degree in Biblical/theological studies or related field from an accredited Bible college or seminary
- Two or more years of pastoral or church leadership experience preferred
- Experience in serving in a cross-cultural environment
